Public Comments -

- Shelby Garlington would like to see lights on the playground, so kids could play after dark.

Polling of the Council -

- Clay Cole -
  - Blue Cole mentioned that he has been seeing the Sheriff Deputy sitting in town on several occasions.
  - Cars are still having problems seeing around the curve, even though GDOT has cut the right of way, on State Highway 16 right before you get to Main Street going east. They may could put in a blinking sign or some type of signage to give notice.

Mayor's Minutes - There are two Council Members (Clay Cole & Keith Rhodes) who will no longer be on Council after this meeting. Just wanted to let them both know how much their time, volunteer work and dedication has meant to this office and to the citizens of Sharpsburg. Thank you for your service.

There being no further business coming before the Council, the meeting was adjourned.
